For Competitor and Participant classes all riders must be EA members (either competitive or participation membership).

We are an EA affiliated club so this event will be run under the EA Dressage Rules.

Organisers reserve the right to amend the programme and alter the day of tests depending on entries. Maximum of two horses per rider per day

If you are bringing a stallion you must notify the organisers through the entry form and you must comply with EA rules for stallion handling.

Stallion yards are available but these must be booked on the nominate entry form

Young Horse Tests: Age as at date of competition: Horses may be registered with EA or not. Proof of date of birth must be scanned and attached to entry. Riders must be EA registered or a Henty member for insurance purposes. Grackle or Crossed nosebands will not be permitted. Bits must be a minimum of 14mm thickness.

Pony classes will not be held this year due to time constraints but may be considered for next year.

Arena familiarisation:

Arena Familiarisation times will be advised after the draw. All competitors must be mounted for Arena Familiarisation. The pace and rein are at the direction of the Steward attending. Led horses, and/or any accompanying grooms/agents on foot will not be permitted to participate in Arena Familiarisation. ID numbers for Competitor riders must be clearly displayed on both sides of bridle/saddle cloth, and Stallions must wear green stallion discs.

Protests:

As per EA dressage rules.

General info and Awards:

Championships:

The following championships will be awarded for Competitor and Participant.

Preliminary (no FS required), Novice, Elementary, Medium, Advanced, Small Tour (PSG + Inter 1), Medium Tour (Inter A+B) and Large Tour (GP and GP freestyle) Pony champ for each level to advanced.

To be eligible for a championship your freestyle placing will be added to the test placings to determine the champion for each level. You can only ride one freestyle and that will determine your eligible championship level. There is no freestyle for prelim that will be decided on placing in the two tests.

Please note there is no champion for Prep.

To be eligible for the Championship you must ride and post % scores in both tests of the same level and a freestyle at that level.

EA Championship points will be awarded from 30 down to 1 for the tests and freestyle test and the rider combination with the highest points over the 3 tests will be the champion.

Freestyle challenge:

Each EA horse/rider combination is only able to ride one freestyle test over the weekend. Freestyle winners will receive a quality dressage saddle pad and placegetters to 3rd will receive a gift voucher for Evolution Equestrian.

Awards:

Prizes will be awarded for 1st-3rd for all tests both days.

A rug and rosette will be awarded to the champion of each level for competitor and participant from Preliminary to FEI Large Tour.

Highest Percentage Henty member across competitor and participant classes each day will receive a prize. The winner of this prize on Saturday is not eligible for winning this prize on Sunday.

ORAH Separate ribbon for highest placed Owner Rider Australian Horse for Competitor classes.
Ribbons to 6th, Junior / YR classes.

Ponies separate classes and championships for competitor prelim-advanced.
